

4.2 Materials and components

In the exam you will be asked about the materials and properties of an object.

You will need to know these from the information in Chapter 1.

You should only mention these materials when answering the questions and remember to be specific. E.g. Speak about Oak, not wood, or, Acrylic not plastic, or stainless steel not metal.