

5.2 Designing skills

When answering the design question you must draw your ideas clearly. Simple outline drawings are the best way to do this. Use a pencil, HB or B.

When adding notes to your design ideas do not write too much, but use the correct terms and be specific!

You need to practice the design questions to get used to what you are supposed to do for this part of the exam.