

THE PROPERTIES OF FABRICS

Absorbent can soak up moisture.

Colourfast retain colour after washing.

Crease resistant does not crease easily.

Conductor allows the passage of heat through it.

Elastic will stretch and return to its original shape and size.

Insulator prevents the passage of heat through it.

Non-flammable does not catch fire or burn easily.

Non-shrink does not reduce in size when washed

Resilient returns to its original shape after pulling or crushing.

Strong can resist a great deal of strain without tearing

Washable can be washed without damaging the fabric

Waterproof keeps water out completely